About Oando Foundation

Established in 2011, Oando Foundation is an independent charity launched by Oando PLC, one of Africa's leading indigenous energy solutions providers. The Foundation aims to support the Nigerian Government to meet its universal primary education targets. Its mission is to radically improve the quality of teaching and learning in Nigerian schools and communities by ensuring access to world class basic education systems. Oando Foundation has so far adopted 10 schools across 23 states in Nigeria.
